Deadly Disease Discovered in Trout Shipment

Routine inspection of trout importation at California's border has saved the State's freshwater fisheries from a possible disaster of major proportions, the Department of Fish and Game has reported.

A fungus parasite, Ichthyosporidium, known in the east as "herring disease", was found in a shipment of some 6,000 trout consigned to the Sacramento Valley area. The shipment was turned back at the border.

Had the shipment been permitted into the State, such popular fisheries as salmon, striped bass, shad, sturgeon, as well as trout, could have been seriously jeopardized.

THIRTEEN CO-OPS SET TO OPEN PHEASANT SEASON

Thirteen pheasant hunting cooperative areas have been lined up throughout the State for the 1959 pheasant hunting season which opens for a 16-day run beginning November 14 and continuing through November 29.

On the Etiwanda Co-op in San Bernardino County and the Morena Co-op in San Diego County a 10-day season, beginning November 14, will prevail.

In addition to the 13 pheasant co-ops, pheasant hunting will be permitted on a fee basis on five Waterfowl Management Areas (Honey Lake, Gray Lodge, Grizzly Island, Los Banos and Mendota) and on three National Wildlife Refuges (Colusa, Sutter and Merced) under certain conditions.

South High's "Mister Outside and Mister Inside" duo of juniors Joe Austin and Bob Wehrhan lead the Pioneer League with 26 and 25 points, respectively, after three games.

North, South, Torrance B's Undefeated

North High's unbeaten Bee football team seeks its fifth straight Bay League victory Friday at Redondo's expense, while the Torrance and South High elevens put their unbeaten records on the line this afternoon in Pioneer League games.

Torrance and South, with 2-0-1 records, go against Aviation and Beverly Hills, respectively as the jumbled Pioneer loop enters its fourth week of action.

Both teams play away from home at 3 p.m.

Torrance's is the highest scoring lightweight team in the Pioneer League, with 65 points in the three games for an average of 21 points a game. Torrance and South played to a 6-6 tie two weeks ago.

North High, streaking to a championship after dumping previously unbeaten Hawthorne 18-0 last week, plays at Seahawk Bowl tomorrow. Redondo has a 2-2 record, including a 12-7 loss to Morningside last week.

Jones Races At Ascot in Night Finale

Parnelli Jones, the pride of Torrance, will be out to hold his third place position in the 1959 championship racing as the last night race of the year is scheduled for Ascot Stadium, Gardena.

Second place challengers Alen Heath, the one-armed driving sensation, and Bud Sterritt will be racing for runner-up honors as the full size cars are slated to run an eight event program of races — including time trials and the big 30-lap main event between the 14 fastest cars of the night.

With the racing season over in all other parts of the United States, the largest entry list of the year is already in for Saturday night's sprint car races. Jack Bruner, Jim Gilchrist, Tommy Winchester, Clay Robbins, Howard Gardner, Sonny Pratt, Bob Hogle, and Rosie Rousell are among the top 40 drivers listed.

Time trials begin at 7 p.m. and the first race gets the green flag at 8:15.

'Slowed Down' Basketball Set For Torrance

The call is out for team managers and players interested in a slowed down version of basketball, designed particularly for men 30 years of age or older.

A meeting to discuss and try out rules of play for this new game has been slated for 7 p.m. tonight in Torrance High School's gym, according to Elmer S. Moon, Adult Athletics Director for the Torrance Recreation Department.

Dressing quarters and showers will be available after 6:30 p.m. Players are urged to bring their own towel, soap, and lock. Torrance High School is located at 2200 Carson Street.

Further information may be obtained by contracting Moon tonight at the gym, or by phoning FA 8-4108.

LEE HOLDS BIKE RACE LEADERSHIP

A wide-open scramble is forecast for the next-to-last motorcycle race meet of 1959 Friday evening at Ascot Stadium. First event is set for 8:30, with time trials at 7.

The race will be a prelude to the Season Championship meet at the 182nd and Vermont Avenue plant on Nov. 13. A banner field is indicated as riders strive for a fat paycheck before the end of the campaign.

Young Troy Lee, although his win streak was snapped last week as Al Gunter rode to a convincing main event victory, holds a healthy lead over second-place Sammy Tanner in the season standings.

Others who figure in the thick of the 15-lap chase include Brad Andres, Johnny Muckenthaler, Bob SirKegan, Johnny Gibson, Don Wehrman, Dick Terhune and Stu Morley.

At thirty life is all aglow,
A simple, uncomplex show.
But the older we get
We admit with regret
We keep finding how much we don't know.

PLACE-KICKER—Pat Stuart, Torrance High place kicking artist, sets sights on football for practice conversion with Howard Taylor holding. Stuart has kicked six of nine PATs for the Tartars in three games. (Herald photo)

Torrance Calls On Pat Stuart For Conversions

When Torrance's Tartars need a PAT (point after touchdown), they call on Pat the Place Kicking Specialist, and the senior with the educated toe usually comes through.

Place-kickers are few and far between these days in prep football ranks, but Pat Stuart has become such a consistent conversion artist that the Tartars have abandoned their former reckless ways of running or passing for the PAT.

Stuart, a senior slotback, has arched six of nine placements through the uprights in the last three games. One was blocked, two were wide.

Prior to his "coming of age," Torrance won games 6-0 and 13-12, with the team running for the point-after.

It hasn't yet come down to where a single point has meant the difference in Torrance's outcome the last five games, but any one of the team's remaining three games could result in just that close a finish.

If that is the case, Pat's a good man to have around.

He booted three of five against Lennox (33-0), two of two against South High (14-27), and one of two against Beverly Hills (13-0).

Pat is also available for field goal duty, although Torrance hasn't attempted a field goal in three seasons. "He's a good strong kicker" (6 ft. 190 lbs.), Coach Irwin Kasten said, "and I guess he'd be OK for a field goal try."

Pat didn't start coming around as a place kicker until the season was three weeks old. In practice prior to that he was booting about four out of 10.

Montgomery High Hosts Vianney In Camino Real League Game

Bishop Montgomery's Knights hope to better their second place standing in the newly formed Camino Real League Friday night when the team hosts St. John Vianney at 8 p.m.

Both schools have 1-1 records, and are tied for second place.

Montgomery High, Torrance, stakes its victory hopes on the running of fullback Dick Moore, the team's leading ground gainer, and the passing of tailback Joe Rutherford.

Rutherford, a junior, has teamed consistently with end Bob Schott for a potent passing attack.

Montgomery is a two-year-old school, with juniors the top class.

Coach Jim Fohey's club operates from the single-wing and has a 2-4 seasonal record. Last year the team compiled a 4-3-1 record.

Vianney runs out of the flanker-T, and is coached by former Los Angeles Ram star Bob Boyd.
